How to do this activity:

1. Watch for cues and signals to see if your child is ready to play and learn. Remember to help your child explore their natural curiosity during the activity.
2. Gather 3 safe objects that have different textures, colors, and shapes.
3. Lay these items on the floor in front of you and your child. Watch your child to see which object(s) they're interested in exploring first.
4. As your child explores the different items, use your Two-Way Talk handout to guide you in having a conversation with your child about the different objects.
5. Remember to pause and wait for your child to respond to what you're saying as you describe the different items to them.
